VOL. 57—NO. 134 JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1923 EIGHT PAGES—THREE CENTS

NINE HOUR DAY WITH FIFTY SIX HOURS PER WEEK

Compromise Reached By Senate for Female Labor

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 6 — Nine hours a day and 56 hours a week will be the limitations on female labor in Illinois if the compromise reached in the state senate today is enacted. The present law provides for a ten hour day but sets no specific weekly limit, tho seventy hours is the result of a seven day week.

At today's afternoon session an amendment by Senator Hicks, Republican, Rockford was added to the house bill for an eight hour day. This amendment provides that the industrial commission shall fix hours for each industry but that until this is done all female labor shall not work more than nine hours a day or more than 56 hours a week.

Senator Barr, Republican Joliet lost 26 to 22, an amendment to provide for a fifty hour week. Senator Barbour, Republican Evanston, also lost his proposal for 54 hours.

Various other amendments exempting certain classes of workers were defeated, a majority of the senators believing the industrial commission should be given that power. Even an exemption of hospital workers was not favored, since it was the belief that the commission would see that nurses are not restricted.

Senator Bailey, Republican, Danville, proposed an amendment exempting cannery workers and it was tabled, thirty to eighteen and the bill sent to third reading.

The bill's fate still is in doubt as some senators said they would not vote for it in any form. If it receives senate approval it will return to the house for concurrence in the change.

Tomorrow morning the omnibus appropriation bill will be taken up on second reading in the senate and various amendments threshed out. It was reported out by the appropriations committee this afternoon without being changed from the form in which it passed the house last week.

Smith Wants Helpers.

Chairman Frank L. Smith of the commerce commission, told the committee that he wanted four or five of the eight assistant commerce commissioners retained, being willing to dispose of three. In the house the $80,000 for salaries of all eight was eliminated. Mr. Smith also said he is willing to release several secretaries who have been assigned to the assistants.

The house today spent much time in argument and tho it met in the morning and from 2:30 p. m. to 7:30 p. m., it failed to accomplish much toward cleaning up the calendar. It passed the following insurance bills.

By C. L. McMackin—Prescribing the New York policy for fire insurance as a standard form in Illinois.

By McMackin—Requiring every insurance company to transact its business in the name under which the company is organized.

By Curran—Providing for supervision of rate making bureaus publishing rates for fire and similar kinds of insurance and prohibiting discrimination.

Representative McMackin's bill to license insurance companies was killed 68 to 14.

House approval also was given the J. W. McCarthy bill to allow forest preserve districts to construct zoological gardens. This was passed to enable establishment of a zoo west of Chicago.

Senator Denvir's bill to increase the levy for the firemen's pension fund in Chicago also was passed by the house.

Tomorrow the senate $100,000,000 road bond bill will receive house attention and efforts will be made to dispose of all amendments so that the measure can be sent to third reading by night.

SIX QUIZZED ABOUT KLAN CEREMONY AT STATE FAIR GROUNDS

No Clue Obtained to Fix the Responsibility

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 6. — Six men were questioned this afternoon by the house committee investigating the holding of a Ku Klux Klan ceremony at the state fair grounds May 26, but from them the committeemen got no clue as to who was responsible for allowing the klan to use state property.

Charles Wanless, exalted cyclops of Abraham Lincoln Klan No. 30, Realm of Illinois, professed ignorance when asked to give authority for the initiation of 700 men at the fair grounds and said that the rites first had been planned for a nearby field. Rain necessitated in a change and "some one" he said, suggested the fair ground.

Mr. Wanless said the Klan had no more right to use the state's property than any other persons, and that if current was used to light the coliseum the Klan should pay for it. In reponse to a question the cyclops declared the Klan takes no stand relative to race or religion.

C. H. Wintz, local restaurant owner, was asked if he visited the state fair grounds the night of May 26 and he replied that he did not remember. He said he and a party had been driving about the city that night between 9 and 10 o'clock and that they "might have" been near the grounds. Later he said he did not think they had. Representatives O'Grady and Cutler accused Wintz of false testimony but failed to shake his story. Wintz denied he is a Klan member and that he served lunch to the klansmen.

E. E. Lindley, assistant general manager ofthe fair told the committeemen he first heard of the initiation thru newspapers. He too denied membership in the Klan.

Earlier in the day the Klan had obtained an injunction restraining Edmund Burke from making public lists of alleged Klan members and other documents the Klan's brief contended had been stolen.

Army Dirigble Is Burned At Dayton

(By The Associated Press)

DAYTON, July 6.—The United States army service dirigible T-C-1 was destroyed by fire shortly after it moored at Wilbur Wright field at 6 p. m., here tonight. The ship, the largest of its kind in this country was destroyed during a severe electrical storm. It came to Dayton late today from Scott Field, Illinois on a test flight.

Sergeant Harry Barnes, Scott Field and A. C. Maranville, Akron, Ohio, reresentative of the Goodyear Rubber Company which built the ship, were injured when they jumped forty feet to the ground, when the big bag caught fire. Barnes' ankle was broken and his knee sprained. Maranville suffered a crushed ankle and a sprainod arm. Both are in hospitals.

The ship was flown to Dayton by a crew of ten men, commanded by Lieutenant Clyde Kuntz.

Lieutenant Kuntz and other members of the crew left the ship shortly before the accident. The ship had been moored to one of the steel towers when it was caught in the wind and swung around, coming in contact with another steel post. The bag was highly charged with electricity and the connection with the two steel towers caused the explosion and fire, it is believed.

The T-C-1 was of the same size as the S-2 which was destroyed by fire at San Antonio, Texas, last year after completing a trans-continental flight. Lightning struck another hangar at Wright field to night but little damage was caused.

The T-C-1 finished in trial test flight over Scott Field on April 7th, and was accepted by the government. On its trip to Wright Field it passed over Dayton at 5:30 p. m. flying low, went to the field, circled and was moored only a short time before it was destroyed.

AIR FLIVVER IS CAUGHT IN WIND; CRASHES INTO TREE

Attempted Flight to Washington is Abandoned

(By The Associated Press)

PAULSBORO, N. J., June 6.—Georges Barbot, who left Garden City, L. I., this morning in an attempt to fly his flivver airplane to Washington, D. C., was caught in a strong gust of wind while passing over here and crashed into a large oak tree near Mantua Creek before he could get the machine under control.

Barbot, with Lieutenant Francis B. Valentine as a pilot in a larger plane stopped at Pine Valley shortly before 1 p. m., after having come from Garden City without mishap. Valentine however, in making a landing stripped his landing gear and was unable to continue the trip. Barbot a few minutes later took the air without the larger machine to guide him. He ascended to a height of about 10,000 feet and was gliding downward in the direction of his journey when a strong westerly wind seized the tiny "flying flivver" and tossed it into a side slip. The Frenchman was unable to right the machine as the motor had stalled and he was only about three hundred feet from the earth. The wing caught in the branch of a tree and the plane slid gently to the ground. Barbot escaped without a scratch.

Barbot left Garden City today at 7:40 a. m., Standard Time, and expected to reach Washington at 3 p. m. He was very much chagrined by his mishap. The tiny 'flivver" had travelled about 75 miles before the crash occurred.

The French expressed willingness to meet any reasonable German plan in a spirit of conciliation and, aside from insisting that payment from Germany must be forthcoming before the French march out of the Ruhr, M. A THOUGHT

Take no thought for your life, what you shall eat; nor for the body, what ye shall put on. The life is more than meat, and the body is more than rainment.—Luke 12:22,23.

Where all are selfish, the sage is no better than the fool, and only rather more dangerous. —Froude.

GOOD LIGHTING PAYS.

In a big industrial state, where they have a compulsory lighting code, employers have found that the better lighting systems demanded by the code have increased the efficiency of their employees and reduced the number of accidents and the cases of eye-strain.

The rules cover intensity of light and its distribution. They provide for the installation of lighting systems which shall do away with dark spots, deep shadows, glare, confusion cross-lights and kindred factors in poor vision.

That the idea grows in popularity is shown by the fact that whereas in 1921 it was necessary to issue orders to more than 11,000 industrial establishments to comply with the code, only about 4,000 special orders were found necessary in 1922. And this was not because employers generally stand in fear of the law, but because they are coming to understand that business interest is served by adequate lighting in office, shop and factory.

What has proved true there is just as true in any other state, and it is just as true in the home and the school as it is in the business institution. While much progress has been made in the matter of illumination almost everywhere, there is still a great deal to be done. Where improvement is needed, a study of these codes which have been worked out on scientific principles and proved valuable through experiment should be suggestive and helpful.

THE ORNITHOPTER.

The worst thing about aviation is its terminology. Just as people were beginning to understand the meaning of the word "helicopter," along comes the "ornithopter." Dr. George de Bothezat, inventor of the former, has left the army service to build the latter.

In plain English, helicopter is a revolving-winged aircraft, a sort of windmill that provides its own power and bores its way upward into the air, then forward. All that any helicopter has yet succeeded in doing is raising vertically a few feet from the ground, but much is expected of it in the future.

The fascinating thing about the new contraption, dubbed ornithopter, is that it dispenses entirely with the propeller device and gets back to first principles. The word means "bird wings," and that is exactly what the proposed machine is. Dr. de Bothezat thinks he can build an artificial bird with a gasoline engine in its stomach, and make it go.

Possibly he can. That was the type of the first recorded aircraft, built of old by fabled Icarus. He must have used his arms or legs, or both, and he fell when the glue on the wings was melted by the hot sun. That touch alone gives the story away as a poetic fake, for any aviator knows that as you rise upward it gets colder, not warmer.

The new bird machine may fly, as its inventor hopes, but nearly everybody else will be from Missouri until it does. Bird's wings are all right—for birds. For man, wheels have been proved better than legs, marine propellers better than feet or tails and air propellers better than any flapping arrangement. Wings are good to support a body in motion, but but something that whirls is needed to drive it along. And present airplanes outfly eagles.

HOARDERS

Have you a weakness for hoarding any particular article—such as old coins, stamps, fossils, china or picture postals? In Galion, Ohio an auctioneer has been selling an amazing mess of "treasure' accumulated by the late eccentric Mrs. Emma Lee.

Her old house, when she died recently, was found packed to the ceilings from cellar to garret with a clutter of dishes, tinware and thousands of household aticles which she had been accumulating and adding to her hoard for 30 years.

The house looked like a warehouse for a general store. So much stuff stood about in boxes and barrels, piled on top of each other, that the owner had only a narow lane for moving though the rooms.

Though 37 wagonloads of "junk" have been hauled to the dump, the auctioneer says it will take weeks to sell what's left.

Older readers will recall that Cassie Chadwick had a similar weakness for collecting, though she cluttered her home with precious articles such as oriental rugs and porcelians.

The people of Galion are puzzled to understand what caused Mrs. Lee to hoard such an array of utensils that she never used—for instance, dishes by the thousands. But she was merely the victim of an exaggeration of the hoarding instinct that is in all of us. The stamp collector is in her class, on a smaller scale.

And Mrs. Lee, in hoarding thousands of utensils, was just as same as the millionaire who hoards more money than he needs The rich man can't take his dollars with him when he dies, anymore than Mrs. Lee could take her old curisoity shop.

No doubt, she got as much satisfaction out of sitting and contemplating her hoard as the rich man chuckling over his bank book. She, at least, saved something useful.

The squirrel hoards just enoguh nuts to last him and his family through the winter. When he gets sufficient, he quits.

The hoarding instinct, peculairly characterstic of man, is found in very few forms of life. Rats and crows occasionaly hoard articles useless to them. In the Yukon there is a mountain rodent known as the "trade rat," which will rob a cabin of everything it can carry to its nest—and leave, in exchange for each stolen article, a twig or chip of wood. A prospector up there is apt to return to his home and find it filled with a pile of chips heaped on the floor in trade.

The black bear also will plunder a cabin, even taking a stove to pieces, but he carries each article in a different direction—scatters the flour on the ground and the other articles so far apart and away that the owner would have to hunt a year to gather his furnishings together again.

MET FORMER PUPILS OF SCHOOL FOR DEAF

One night recently in Sioux City, Iowa, I saw three deaf boys on Fourth street. As I am always interested in these young people, I interviewed them and asked their names, which proved to be Emil F. and August Valentine and Edward J. Humphreys.

The Valentines had been students at the School for the Deaf here and Humphreys attended the deaf school at Council Bluffs. Th young men who formerly attended the local school asked many questions about Jacksonville. They were intimately acquainted with Professor C. Spruit, and Humphreys had known him in Council Bluffs. All three knew Marshall Lawrence, who lives in Sioux City, who was a student at the School for the Deaf here while his sister Mary was enrolled at the Jacksonville Female academy. I was interested in knowing that all of the young men are holding good positions.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

The Summons

By Berton Braley

WHEN your feet begin to itch
For the long and dusty road,
And you're sick of quarters which
Are your present-day abode;
Then it's time to pack your kit
And it's time to up and blow,
And there's no use fighting it,
For you've simply gotta go.

Ain't it so?
You must go,
Start to tramp it to and fro.
Take your blanket-roll and dust,
Go you will and go you must;
When the fever's in your veins
You must go!

OH, I've settled down a lot
And I've sworn I wouldn't stir,
But would buy a little cot,
Find a girl and marry her;
Then my feet began to itch
And my life at home was slow,
And my nerves began to twitch,
So I simply had to go.

Ain't it so?
You must go,
Quit your home and job and blow,
Take your blanket-roll and pack,
Hit the rovers' endless track;
When the fever's in your veins
You must go!

CHURCH PICNIC WILL BRING LARGE CROWDS

Parade This Morning—Big Dinner in Park at Noon—Address of Judge Olson to Feature Program

Today's the day for the big county Protestant church picnic. Get your basket of dinner ready and take it to the park. Be on hand with your car loaded to the fenders, to fall in line for the parade, which will start at 10:30 prompt. It is expected that every church and Sunday school in the county will be represented in the line of march. Banners, pennants, and gay decorations will mark the various aggregations. Two or three bands will furnish the music.

With a good band to inspire their steps, most people enjoy marching, and the distance to the park will seem short. However, after you arrive, you will be hungry enough to do justice to the bountiful picnic dinner which will be served.

It is planned to have one great picnic dinner, not twenty-five small ones. You may have opportunity to touch elbows and get acquainted with people from other parts of the county. The picnic ought to promote a more liberal and brotherly spirit among Protestants in Morgan county, and it is up to the individual church member to see that this is done, as far as he is concerned, at least.

Following the picnic dinner, there will come the afternoon program. Judge Harry Olson of Chicago will deliver the principal address. He will have something to tell of the really human experiences gained by a municipal court judge in a large city. His address will be a treat to the thousands of people who are expected to throng the park this afternoon.

MISS TOMPKINS MADE FINE SCHOOL RECORD

Jacksonville friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Tompkins now residing in Springfield, will be interested in knowing of the excellent record made by their daughter, Miss Gertrude, in the Springfield high school. Miss Tompkins has been awarded the salutatorian honors out of a class of 200 which will graduate from the Springfield high school June 14, the largest class in the history of the school.

The record is the more noteworthy when it is remembered that Miss Tompkins took the first three years of work in the Jacksonville high school and naturally some readjustments were necessary in taking up her fourth year's work in Springfield.

Miss Tompkins will be a student at Illinois Woman's college the coming year.

Selling Service

A telephone company sells service. It does not sell or rent telephones.

The instrument in your home or office is of use to you only by reason of the service rendered. The bill you pay is distinctly a service charge.

And telephone service is different from other services.

If your neighbor's gas supply is defective, his lighting poor, or his water supply inadequate, you are not affected. These annoyances concern only himself and his household. But if his telephone is out of order and you cannot reach him when you call, or if he makes you wait long before he answers, YOUR telephone service is unsatisfactory.

Thus the service of any telephone user may be rendered unsatisfactory by the habit or act of another.

In the interest of good telephone service, we suggest the observance of the following simple practices:

Respond promptly when the bell rings.

Make sure before calling that you have the right number by consulting the telephone directory first.

Speak distinctly, with the lips close to but not touching the mouthpiece.

When answering give your name or the name of your firm—cutting out "Hello."

Lasting Saitsfaction in the Hup-mobile

Satisfaction is perhaps the one word which best describes the feeling of every Hupmobile owner.

Satisfaction — with the faithful way it performs the tasks he sets for it to do; with the fact that it requires next to nothing in the way of expert care and adjustment; with low costs that stay low all the year 'round.

Satisfaction, in short, because the Hupmobile always does the things he wants it to do in the way he wants it to do them.

THIEVES EMPTY GASOLINE TANK

About nine o'clock Tuesday evening thieves entered the premises of James E. Johnson a farmer residing five and one half miles northwest of Jacksonville and emptied his gasoline tank of 31 gallons of gasoline.

The thieves rolled the tank from its location to a point behind the barn, unscrewed the cap off the top of the tank and poured the gasoline into cans and carried it across a field to their car and departed.

The theft occurred about nine o'clock, Mr. Johnson believes, as his watch dog did considerable barking about that hour.

The New Clark Jewel

SEE THIS BEFORE YOU BUY

We honestly believe the new Clark Jewel Oil Stove is the best oil cooker ever offered the buying public.

1. Inner Combustion Tube: Made of heat-resisting "Vesuvius Metal." Tapered combustion tubes prevent "boil-overs" from reaching wick, an assurance against wick sticking.
2. Automatic Wick Stop: Always in adjustment to stop the wick at the correct starting and burning point.
3. Inside Wick Tube: All brass, corrugated to prevent sticking and binding of wick.
4. Removable Head: Made of a material that does not easily transmit heat from combustion chamber to oil-well. Its quick-detachable feature makes wick-changing easy.
5. Chimney Raiser: A simple device, easy to operate. Makes lighting easy.
6. Outside Wick-Tube: All brass. Extra wide space between wick and outer tube insures easy operation of wick, prevents sticking and makes insertion and removal of wick an easy task.

JOCKEY DONOGHUE WINS ENGLISH DERBY

Pilots Pappyrus to Victory in Great Race—Was Third Consecutive Victory in Event—Wins Golden Spurs.

EPSOM DOWNS, June 6.—Jockey Steve Donoghue became a heroic figure in British history today when for the third year in succession he rode to victory in the greatest of all horse races—the Derby. This time the little leader of all British jockeys was mounted on Pappyrus, the three year old possession of an Irish tenant farmer, named Barney Irish.

Pappyrus in winning the race over the derby mile and a half course ahead of eighteen other thorobreds, lifted his owner, a man of rather small means, to a place of wealth and renown and gave to Donoghue the supreme position among the jockeys of the world and a record unsurpassed by any rider since man began the sport of horse racing.

By winning three derbys in a row Donoghue gains possession of the golden spurs which the Jockey Club long ago offered for this achievement. Pappyrus was purchased by Mr. Irish as a yearling for a relatively small sum.

Donoghue did not lead from start to finish; he got his horse ahead only after the quarter mile post had been passed. This gave Pappyrus the inside track around the turn in the huge grassy horse shoe but the Earl of Derby's Pharos raced right by his side around the bend and almost to the end. Fifty yards from the finish Pappyrus had a half length to the good and he responded nobly to Donoghue's urging and stretched this margin to a full length as he flashed past the finish.

One length behind came Pharos, owned by Lord Derby, whose ancestors established the great race a century and a half ago. M. Goculda's Parth was third, a half length behind Pharos, and Doric, owned by Anthony DeRothschild was fourth.

Safety First finished last.

Pappyrus was the fifth horse Donoghue has ridden to victory in this classic. He captured his first derby with Pommeron in 1915 and won again with Gay Crusader in 1917, Hummerist in 1921 and Captain Cuittle in 1922.

Several hundred thousand spectators cheered the jockey as he, sitting on his steaming mount, led the procession back to the paddock.

The time for the race was more than three seconds slower than the derby record established in 1920 by Spion Kop, who carried the American Jockey O'Neill over the course in 2:34 1-5 seconds. Today America played a somewhat minor role. The American jockey Archibald, on the heavily played Town Guard, finished thirteenth, while Foxhall Keene's Topboot was sixteenth.

FUEL OIL SUBSTITUTES PLENTIFUL IN SWEDEN

Stockholm, (AP)—Sweden can face the menace of world shortage of petroleum with relative calm, in spite of having no domestic supply of that fuel, according to Axel F. Enstrom, a leading Swedish industrial and financial expert, in a recent address before the Association of Swedish Industries.

One of the most important sources of fuel oil which has recently been experimented with here is bituminous shale. It was estimated by the speaker, that the Swedish shale deposits could yield about 500,000,000 tons of shale oil. Production on a small scale is at present being carried on.

A still more practical substitute for petroleum is wood alcohol, said Mr. Enstrom. And Sweden could within a short time produce wood alcohol in quantities corresponding to the present consumption of gasoline. Its manufacture as a by-product of chemical wood pulp is particularly economical. The exxisting fatories have a capacity of abou 5,000,000 gallons of wood alcohol a year, and with new building and still more highly developed methods of conservation, he declared, this capacity could be increased to about 17,000,000 gallons a year.

Finally, Sweden, beause of her great hydro-electric resources, will in the future permit a very much greater use of electricity stored in batteries. Almost every section of the country is now served by the net of power lines, and electricity could be drawn from them for the use of passenger cars, trucks, and tractors.

Women Tell Each Other How They Have Been Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Perrysburg, O.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my sides all the time. I can't remember just how long I suffered, but it was for some time. One day I was talking with a lady I met on a car, and I told her how I was feeling and she said she had been just like I was with pains and nervous troubles, and she took the Vegetable Compound, and it cured her. So then I went and got some, and I certainly recommend it for it is good. Whenever I see any woman who is sick I try to get her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ADA FRICK, Route 3, Perrysburg, Ohio.

In nearly every neighborhood in every town and city in this country there are women who have been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the treatment of ailments peculiar to their sex, and they take pleasure in passing the good word along to other women. Therefore, if you are troubled in this way, why not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

At graduation time your friends expect your photograph.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hariman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse, and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

WHITE HALL CITY COUNCIL HAD MEETING

Various Matters of Business Came Up Before June Meeting of City Council in White Hall.

White Hall, June 6.—The June session of the city council gave visitors the first exhibit of the new body in complete functioning order. White Hall never had a more earnest and conscientious governing body than the present council. The session lasted from 7:30 P. M. until 11:10 P. M. when adjournment was taken until two weeks hence for the purpose of taking up the municipal electric proposition, by which time all the legal phases will have been complied with.

The session was devoted to reports, petitions, communications and the usual routine, including personal requests from half a dozen citizens on such subjects as sanitation, wages and the Fourth of July dedication. The latter event was shown to be thoroughly organized on such a scale as to insure an event of lasting qualities, and the councilmen proceeded to lift the lid from the affair and get it to functioning in real earnest by making an appropriation of $300.00 to the general committee.

The water superintendent cautioned against a water shortage because of the low stage of the city reservior. In this the water committee, headed by Alderman L. R. Winn, will seek the cooperation of all citizens and institutions, especially the Burlington railroad. H. R. Fry, water superintendent, estimated that the stage is lowering at the rate of three-quarters of an inch per day at the present time, and at this rate the reservior supply would be exhausted by August 1st, without rain.

Various reports were read and approved but they contained nothing of great importance, except that the treasurer showed a total cash balance of $13,746.10.

Alderman H. H. Seely recommended that Douglas street be not extended until such time as industrial requirements demand, on account of the expense estimated by him at from $1,000 to $1,500. His recommendation prevailed.

Under the head of petitions, the abatment of nuisance and the construction of walks and extending street lighting service were considered at length. On the latter point the petitioners were informed that the C. I. P. S. Co., would not make any extension under present conditions of the likelihood of a municipal plant becoming a reality. The matter of riding bicycles and operating coaster wagons on the walks is to receive a jolt that will eliminate the practice for a longer time than previous efforts along this line. A walk is to be constructed on Carr street on the west side north from Bridgeport street to the north line of the premises of Mrs. Lillian Grant. The street and alley committee was empowered to provide a watering place for horses, and the location wil be determined by the council later.

O'CONNELLS RETURN FOR GAME SUNDAY

The O'Connell's of Springfield will return Sunday for another games with Frank Smith's Indees Fanning has signed up for the season and will be carried as second string pitcher with Wright as the principal pitcher. Reams who injured his throwing arm in the mud-ball game at South Side Park recently is still unable to use his wing and it is doubtful when he will be in condition to play.

Smith has signed a contract with the fast Plano Indians to appear here on Saturday and Sunday June 16th and 17th. This team plays in the Midwest league which contains the well known Beloit Fairies and the crack Simmons team.

To obtain this team Manager Smith had to guarantee 1500 admissions for the two days and solicitors will start a canvas of the town next Monday selling tickets at the usual price of admission and in case of rain preventing play these tickets will be accepted at any of the games of the season.

The attendance lately has left much to be desired and unless the team can make an even break on expenses it may be found necessary to disband the team a condition which would be bad news for a great many of the Jacksonville fans.

MICKEY WALKER UNDER SUSPENSION

NEW YORK, June 6.—Mickey Walker of Elizabeth, N. J., worlds welterweight boxing champion was indefinitely suspended today and his title declared forfeited by the state athletic commission for failure to accept a challenge from Dave Shade, of San Francisco. Under the commission's ruling Shade was accorded recognition in this state as the title holder.

The license commission ruled that a champion must defend his title at least once in six months against any legitimate challenger. Shade posted a forefit and challenge last November, one day after Walker won the title from Jack Britton. Both Walker and his manager, Jack Bulger the commission said had failed to answer communications regarding Shade's challenge. Bulger also was indefinitely suspended.

CUBS EVEN SERIES WITH WORLD CHAMPS

Hit Art Nehf Hard, Getting Twelve Hits Four of Them Doubles—Aldridge Held Giants to Three Tits

CHICAGO, June 6.—Chicago hit Art Nehf, star left hander hard today smashing out four doubles, all of which figured in a 6 to 1 victory over New York and evened up the series.

Vic Aldridge, on the other hand held the world's champions to three hits, one a homer by Snyder which saved the Giants from a shutout.

A thick fog off Lake Michigan, the first on record at Cubs' Park, during playing time, hung over the field and made it so dark at times that it was impossible to see beyond the infield.

In the third inning Otto Vogel, University of Illinois player with the Cubs sent a high fly into the darkness in right field and reached second base. Pep Young rushed to the infield and claimed he had caught the ball. The two umpires conferred and gave Young the verdict. Another time Young was overruled.

ILLINI PLAN FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

URBANA, Ill.,—With Illinois school year practically ended, the Illini coaches are getting ready for the annual summer coaching course which will open on June 18 for six weeks. This is the tenth year for the course which will enroll about 400 students, nearly all of them men with experience as coaches.

Interest is especially deep in the football courses which are to be given by Gilmour Dobie of Cornell University, and Bob Zuppke of Illinois. Veteran coaches are coming from all over the country to sit at the feet of the two masters.

Tha coaching as a profession more and more interests young high school graduates is shown by the inquiries which are being received from all over the United States. Indications point to a large freshman class in the course next fall.

Coach Lundgren's baseball team resumed practice this week for a jaunt to Notre Dame on Saturday. This game was added to the schedule at the request of the Catholics who wanted a commencement feature. Lundgren will not have his full strength as some of his men who hanker after big league jobs are anxious to get started. Otto Vogel will try out with the Cubs and Jackson withthe Cardinals. Next week Capt. Stewart, Hellstrom, Peden and Dougherty will also go to St. Louis to work out with the Cardinals and have Rickey look them over.

Illinois energies this summer will be concentrated on rushing the stadium that it may be ready for opening on November 3. Carpenters are arriving daily from all over the state and this increased force makes the prospects of completed seats much brighter.

Motorists themselves draw that distinction. In every community some men are "in the tire business," while others are recognized as the Goodrich Silvertown Cord Tire dealers. The name of Silvertown symbolizes a merchant who is alive, far-sighted, prepared to serve his customers in the best way.

To these merchants Silvertowns signify the greatest value possible in tires. They have selected them as their leader because they know the advantage of the Goodrich principle of one quality, one grade and one name.

ACTIVE BUYING BOOSTS WHEAT

CHICAGO, June 6—Active buying here against selling at Winnipeg developed in the wheat market today, and prices took an upward swing. The close was firm, ⅞ to 1½c net higher, with July $1.10½ to $1.10⅝ and September $1.09⅞ to $1.10. Corn finished unchanged to ⅜c up, and oats ¼ to 1⅛c gain. In provisions, the outcome was 2c to 10c advance.

Wheat bulls made most of their success during the last half of the day. Higher quotations at Liverpool led to something of an upturn in values at the start here but a decline soon ensued owing more or less to reports of favorable domestic crop conditions and to l kelihood that Canadian wheat might have precedence in European favor for some time to come. Strength in the price of July delivery at Winnipeg, however, led to closing out of spreads being Winniped and Chicago. Consequent bulges in quotations here were aided by optimism which in some quarters were expressed as to the outlook for a reparations settlement with Germany.

Unfavorable crop advices from Great Britain and France together with reports of damage by excessive rains in Kansas tended further to lift wheat prices as the day drew to an end.

Besides it was announced that the world's available supply of wheat had decreased 6,241,000 bushels for the week as compared with a decrease of only 724,000 bushels a year ago. No setback of any consequence interrupted the advance of prices and with 120,000 bushels export business here the market closed at the day's level.

Corn and oats sympathized with the wheat advance, despite heavy profit-taking sales of corn. Wet weather delay of corn planting had some bullish influence.

In provisions the strength of grain more than offset weakness of the hog market.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Prices displayed a reactionary tone during the early part of today's stock market in which there was active liquidation of some of the leather and oil shares but the market rallied and moved above yesterday's closing figures later in response to the brisk demand for some of the equipments and low priced rails. Trading still was on a restricted basis with public participation at a medium.

New low records for the year were established during the session by general asphalt, central leather common and preferred, American Hide and Leather preferred, pure oil, Texas and Pacific Coal and oil, International Harvester and American express the last named breaking more than 11 points in reflection of the reduced dividend.

Fresh buying power came into the railroad group on the announcement that Pere Marquette had been placed on a $4 basis. New York Central which is expected to earn 20 a share on the common this year dedicated its high of 100¼, a net gain of 1¼ on the day.

American Locomotive soared nearly three points to 145⅝ the highest price in its history. Baldwin crossed 133 for a net gain of 1½. Reports that May pig iron production broke all records attracted speculative interest to the steel group. United States steel common gaining 1 point and Republic 1½. Copper improved on reports of heavy buying of the red metal for foreign account.

Proposed reduction of the oil dividend was reflected in a two point drop in the stock. California Petroleum closed nearly a point higher. American Can, American Woolen and the merchandising shares also closed strong.

United States government issues progressed upward, the net gains ranging from 1-32 to 7-32 of one point.

The Booster delegation for the coming Patriotic Jubilee travelled to Winchester yesterday afternoon to spread the gospel of the coming big times in Jacksonville.

There was a crowd of about 3,000 people present, it being the occasion of the drawing in the Winchester gift campaign. Col. O. C. Smith made a speech of invitation to Jacksonville for the three days and the band and quartet furnished their usual excellent program. About one thousand handbills were distributed advertising a few of the many attractions here for those days, and the delegation feel that we will entertain a large number from Winchester on account of the booster trip.

The boosters will leave this evening for Virginia carrying their usual features of entertainment. This being the regular meeting night of the Virginia post, after the street meeting the Jacksonville delegation will be entertained in the post quarters.

All who can are requested to bring their cars and be on the north side of the square ready for a 6:30 start and transportation will be furnished as far as possible for all ex-service men who can go on the trip.

ZACHARY MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL ARGUED

Judge Smith Has Taken the Case Under Advisement — Finding Expected on Friday.

Judge E. S. Smith in the Scott county circuit court after hearing the argument of counsel yesterday took under advisement the motion for a new trial for Samuel T. Zachary. The argument on behalf of Mr. Zachary was presented by William N. Hairgrove, W. T. Wilson and R. M. Riggs, and the state was represented by State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson.

Judge Smith indicated that he will probably give his decision Friday. The attorneys for the defense maintained that a number of the instructions given the jury were improper. They also questioned the propriety of admitting the dying declaration of Luther Crawford, maintaining that the customary proof had not been given to provide its admittance.

State's Attorney Robinson presented argument to show the correctness of the instructions given. He laid some emphasis upon the fact that the number of instructions submitted by the defense was more than four times greater than the number by the prosecution.

As indicated, the decision is expected tomorrow. Should a new trial be granted it will be held in the Scott county circuit court.

MRS. F. A. JOHNSON DIED HERE WEDNESDAY

Well Known Resident Passed Away After Extended Illness—Funeral Will be Held Friday.

The death of Mrs. Jessie B. Johnson occurred Wednesday afternoon at Our Savior's hospital, following an extended illness. Mrs. Johnson's maiden name was Jessie Gordon, and she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon, who resided on a farm near Lynnville. While resident in that locality she was married in 1879 to Frank A. Johnson.

For a number of years Mr. Johnson was a teacher in the Morgan county schools and subsequently was elected to the office of county superintendent of schools. It was at that time the family home was changed to this city.

Here Mrs. Johnson became a member of Central Christian church and thruout the years maintained her interest in the church activities. She was a woman devoted to family and friends and her high ideals of life service gave her the good opinion of all who knew her.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by three sons and one daughter: Miss Edna Johnson of this city; Kent Johnson, Eldorado, Kans.; Verne Johnson, Petersburg, and Fred A. Johnson, Jacksonville.

She leaves also three brothers and three sisters: Mrs. Agee, Ogden, Utah; Mrs. Virginia Vasey and Mrs. Margaret Heaton, Jacksonville; Frank D. and Fred P. Gordon, Seattle, Wash., and Edgar L. Gordon, Winchester.

The remains were removed to the Gillham Funeral Home and prepared for burial. The funeral service will be held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the residence, with interment in Diamond Grove cemetery.

CAN THE LAW BE ENFORCED?

This live question will be debated by the Rev. N. R. Johnson and son Hayward at the Alexander Methodist church Sunday evening June 10th at 7:45 p. m.

Positive—Rev. N. R. Johnson.
Negative—H. H. Johnson.

J. Stanley Brown, president of the Northern Illinois State Teachers' College at DeKalb, after hearing the Dramatic debate wrote:

"It is one of the most striking examples of teaching through the objective method I have yet seen. The Dramatic debate is the best program that I have heard. It sends the audience out to finish the fight for one hundred per cent prohibition."

FIRST SAVINGS AND LOAN STOCK MATURES

Class B Shares of First Series Are Worth $100.89 Each—Many to Be Reinvested in C Stock at $50 Per Share

Eighty-three shares of the first series of Class B stock in the local Savings and Loan association have been matured. It was voted to mature these shares during a recent meeting of the executive board of the association. They have been running for a period of six years and five months, and the value of each share is $100.89.

Many of the holders of these shares will probably purchase Class C stock with the matured shares of B stock. The total value of the matured stock is in a prosperous condition and will be able to mature and pay its shares as they fall due. This is the first stock to be matured in the present organization. The shares were paid for at a dollar a month and cost the holders a total of $77 a share. The profits on each share were therefore $23.89 per share, or about 4.8 per cent per annum on the actual investment. The low rate shown is due to the fact that for the first few months of its existence the association did not do a large amount of business.
